Dear Ms. Marconi:

Re: EB-2022-0325 – Generic Hearing on Uniform Transmission Rates (UTR) – Phase 2.

Glencore Canada Corporation (GCC) Interrogatory Responses Filing Delay.

We write as counsel for GCC to inform the OEB and interested parties that, with apologies, we will be delayed in filing GCC's responses to interrogatories on its evidence (Exhibit M3).

The delay is wholly a result of the writer's schedule. I am engaged on multiple, co-incident OEB matters (including the concurrent cost of capital proceedings and ongoing settlement discussions in Phase 2 of the Enbridge Gas Inc. rebasing proceeding), as well as other client matters. This co-incidence of activity on various matters has left me very limited availability since the filing of the interrogatories a few weeks ago, and in the result, we have been unable to finalize the responses for filing today.

Conscious of the October 16th date for written submissions in this matter, we are making every effort to finalize and file GCC's responses as soon as possible. The Jewish New Year, which starts this evening and runs through Friday, will similarly constrain my own schedule, but work is proceeding and we will expedite as much as we can, with the intent to file all responses on or before this coming Tuesday, October 8th.

Again, with apologies, we would appreciate indulgence from the Board and the patience of interested parties.

Yours truly,

Ian A. Mondrow
