Dear Mr O'Dell,

Re: Board File Number EB 2007-0655

1. Notification of Existing Electricity Contract Assignment

Energy One Canada Inc. has been acting as an agent for Canadian Energy Wholesalers Ltd. ER 2006-0184, assigning all agreements accordingly.

2. Transfer of Electricity Retailer License ER 2006-0208

1625879 Ontario Limited is not a subsidiary of Energy One Canada Inc.; we are attempting to assist in a request from 1625879 Ontario Limited. Energy One Canada Inc. has and is conforming to the licensing requirements.

Q. How does the license transfer impact its current customers?

A. The license transfer will not affect the current clients if the license is not assigned. The contracts are managed by ER 2006 -0184 herein; Energy One Canada has acted as an agent for Canadian Energy Wholesalers Ltd.

Q. Is 1625879 Ontario Limited affiliated to Energy One Canada Inc.?

A. No, 1625879 Ontario Limited are the former directors of Energy One Canada Inc.

Q. Why are the current electricity contracts being transferred to Canadian Hydro (Canadian Energy Wholesalers Ltd.?)

A. Canadian Energy Wholesalers Ltd. is the supplier and requires all clients to be held in order to limit the liability.

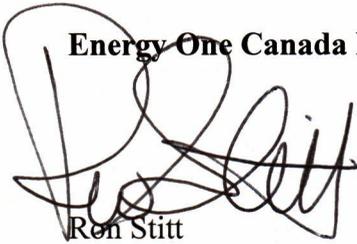

Q. Confirm if Energy One Canada Inc. will continue to operate Gas Marketers license GM 2005-0267?

A. Energy One Canada Inc. intends to manage the existing natural gas client base for the duration of the underlying gas contracts. Energy One Canada has decreased incremental marketing activity at this time while it focus's on our mandate to improve consumer relations.

I trust the enclosed letter outlines the required answers to your letter. Based on the completeness we are requesting ER 2006-0208 license be cancelled at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Energy One Canada Inc.
