Hearings:

Until interrogatories have been answered, we believe it is premature to assess whether a written or an oral hearing is more appropriate in this proceeding

Evidence:

SEC is actively exploring whether to retain experts in this proceeding, and has meetings set up with other intervenors to consider joint expert evidence. Some of the subjects being considered for expert evidence are a) what parts of the proposed plan and/or sectors of the customer base, if any, should be opened up to proposals by program administrators other than the Applicant, and b) what innovative approaches to DSM programming is the Applicant not considering in the proposed plan?

Coordination with Other Intervenors:

SEC will coordinate with other intervenors with similar interests, where appropriate, to promote responsible participation in the proceeding

Cost Awards:

SEC applies for recovery of its costs reasonably incurred in the course of its intervention in this matter.

SEC's members are customers of the Applicant and eligible for an award of costs pursuant to section

3.03(a) of the Practice Direction. SEC has participated in many past natural gas and electricity proceedings in Ontario, including consultations, rate cases, and other processes and hearings, and has been found eligible to be paid its reasonably incurred costs in all of those proceedings.
