

NOTICE OF A RATE HEARING

Oshawa PUC Networks Inc. has applied to change its electricity distribution rates effective January 1, 2026

If the application is approved as filed, a typical residential customer and a typical general service customer of Oshawa PUC Networks Inc. would see the following increase:

Residential (750 kWh)	$6.70 per month
General Service less than 50 kW (2,000 kWh)	$14.22 per month

Other customers, including businesses, will also be affected.

Oshawa Power Networks Inc. also seeks approval to establish a new distributor-specific deferral account, the Cloud Computing Implementation Costs Deferral Account, to record cloud computing implementation costs in case of a future transition from on-premise to a cloud-based solution for its Enterprise Resource Planning software.

It is important to review the application carefully to determine whether you may be affected by the proposed changes.

YOU SHOULD KNOW

There are three types of OEB hearings: oral, electronic and written. The applicant has applied for, and the OEB plans to proceed with, a written hearing. If you think a different hearing type is needed, you can write to us to explain why.

During this hearing, we will hear questions and arguments from participants about this case. We will also hear questions and arguments from participants that have registered as Intervenorors. After the hearing, we will decide whether to approve the application.

HAVE YOUR SAY

You have the right to information about this application and to participate in the process.
Visit www.oeb.ca/notice and use file number EB-2025-0014 to:

- Review the application
- File a letter with your comments
- Apply to become an intervenor

IMPORTANT DATES

You must engage with the OEB on or before June 9, 2025 to:

- Provide input on the hearing type (oral, electronic or written)
- Apply to be an intervenor

If you do not, the hearing will move forward without you, and you will not receive any further notice of the proceeding.

PRIVACY

If you write a letter of comment, your name and the content of your letter will be put on the public record and the OEB website. If you are a business or if you apply to become an intervenor, all the information you file will be on the OEB website.
