Re: Distribution Customer Connections Review (EB-2025-0204)

Dear Mr. Murray:

On July 3, 2025, the OEB announced it was launching a review of electricity distributor processes and requirements for connecting load customers. The review is intended to examine connection processes for all load types and will assess the reasonableness and timeliness of distributor procedures to connect customers and recommend changes to streamline and improve connection processes.

The OEB requested stakeholders interested in participating in a working group of customer representatives and distributors to send a letter indicating their interest to the Registrar by July 21, 2025. Elexicon Energy ("Elexicon") is keenly interested in continuing to support the OEB's work on customer connections, particularly as its service territory is experiencing tremendous customer growth. Elexicon is requesting participation on the working group for the following:
