I am vehemently opposed to an increase in rates by Enbridge. We are in a cost-of-living crisis, compounded by the uncertainty of US tariffs. And, a simple google search shows: "Enbridge Inc gross profit for the twelve months ending June 30, 2025 was $18.906B, a 12.28% increase year-over-year. Enbridge Inc annual gross profit for 2024 was $17.831B, a 8.02% increase from 2023."

Maybe they can use some of that 18 BILLION dollars to offset these costs, rather than forcing them on consumers.
