

LETTER OF COMMENT

Comments:

In the times of high inflation and high unemployment, hydro customers are struggling to put food on table, the credit card debt per household is highest ever showing average families struggle to prioritize food and shelter. Adding heating to that struggle is not going to help your customers. May be will help retirees and pension funds who rely on your high dividend pay off but not the customers whom you intend to use as cash cow with this hike.

Name: Prashant Bharate

Do you reside in the impacted service area?: Yes