LETTER OF COMMENT

Comments:

Hi, I live in Woodstock, Ontario. Our property taxes are some of the highest in the province. We just had another tax hike this year. Everything is going up in price, but wages and pensions aren't increasing at the same rate. Gas is a necessity, and we pay handsomely already. I disagree with this increase. Has there ever been a 5-year period where the cost wasn't increased? Now is not the time to add more cost to Ontarians. The cash grabs are becoming grotesque. Thanks for your time. Daniel
