LETTER OF COMMENT

Comments:

I don't know if Embridge truly understand the struggles residents and homeowners feel when we try to raise a family the financial burden during COVID and the drastic impact of inflation the cost of food Gas and utilities added to the increases to property tax will make's life even that much more stressful and unaffordable please hear our cry I know many families feels the pain to lose their home. We living through challenging times with the consequences of high tariffs and job losses please be just money spend to give bonuses and salary increase in the millions hurt homeowners please hear our struggle
