Issues:

SEC is materially impacted by the Application as its members are customers of the Applicant. SEC's interests in this proceeding includes, but is not limited, to the approach, methodology, benefits of allocation between various customer classes in relation to: the proposed DSM programs, portfolio-level budgets, research and innovation budgets, deferred and carryover costs for relevant programs. The appropriateness of the modifications proposed to the DSM Framework and the amounts collected in rates to fund the proposed DSM programs, costs and incentives to the shareholders, and the cost-effectiveness of those amounts.

Hearings:

Until interrogatories have been answered, we believe it is premature to assess whether a written or an oral hearing is more appropriate in this proceeding.

Evidence:

SEC continues to discuss joint evidence with other intervenors, but has not reached any conclusions at this time. Some of the subjects being considered for expert evidence are, a) what parts of the proposed plan and/or sectors of the customer base, if any, should be opened up to proposals by program administrators other than the Applicant, and b) what innovative approaches to DSM programming is the Applicant not considering in the proposed plan?

Coordination with Other Intervenors:

SEC will coordinate with other intervenors with similar interests, where appropriate, to promote responsible participation in the proceeding.

Cost Awards:

SEC applies for recovery of its costs reasonably incurred in the course of its intervention in this matter. SEC's members are customers of the Applicant and eligible for an award of costs pursuant to section 3.03(a) of the Practice Direction. SEC has participated in many past natural gas and electricity proceedings in Ontario, including consultations, rate cases, and other processes and hearings, and has been found eligible to be paid for its reasonably incurred costs in all of those proceedings.
