Attn: Ritchie Murray, Acting Registrar

Dear Mr. Murray:

Re: EB-2024-0026 – Greater Sudbury Hydro Inc. – Final Cost Claim

We are counsel to the School Energy Coalition (“SEC”). Attached, please find the final cost claim using OEB’s cost claim system.

A settlement was reached on all but two discrete DVA accounts. However, the nature of the two accounts and the underlying issues were increasingly complex, and were of significant financial consequence to customers. The process for the unsettled issues included the filing of additional evidence by the Applicant, an interrogatory process, written argument, and further written submissions. The complexity of the issues also required the intervenors to meet to confer and discuss.

SEC divided responsibility for this proceeding between its consultant, Jane Scott, and its counsel, Mark Rubenstein. Ms. Scott and Mr. Rubenstein divided responsibilities for the review of the pre-filed evidence and the discovery process. Mr. Rubenstein had overall responsibility, as well as, responsibility for the Settlement Conference negotiations and the entirety of the unsettled issues, including written argument.

For the purposes of cost claim categorization, where dockets included two different categories of activities, such as reviewing evidence and preparing interrogatories, or reviewing interrogatory responses and preparing for the Settlement Conference, time has been allocated 50% to each applicable activity category. As a practical matter, these tasks are conducted concurrently and cannot be readily separated (e.g., interrogatories are prepared while reviewing evidence). As it took place after the filing of the initial written argument, we have also included consideration and reviewing the responses to the Panel’s question in Procedural Order No. 6, as part of the ‘Written Submissions’ category.

SEC submits that its participation in this proceeding was thorough and valuable and was designed to maximize its assistance to the OEB. Accordingly, SEC requests reimbursement of its reasonably incurred costs as set out in this letter and the attached documentation. These costs are commensurate with the scope of the issues and the role SEC played in this proceeding.

Yours very truly,
Shepherd Rubenstein P.C.
