Requesting information on behalf:

Of an organization

Intervenor Name:

City of Welland

Mandate and Objectives:

The City of Welland is a municipal corporation established under the Municipal Act, 2001. Its mandate includes representing the interests of its residents, providing municipal services, and making informed policy and governance decisions through its elected Council. The City monitors external regulatory proceedings that may have implications for municipal operations, infrastructure planning, local residents, or municipal finances.

Membership of the Intervenor and Constituency Represented:

The City represents the interests of the municipality as a whole, including City Council and the residents, businesses, and communities within Welland's municipal boundaries.

Programs or Activities Carried Out by the Intervenor:

The City's activities include municipal governance, infrastructure and service delivery, land use and community planning, and intergovernmental engagement. This includes monitoring regulatory and policy developments at the provincial level that may affect the municipality or its residents.

Governance Structure:

The City of Welland operates under a Council–Manager form of government. Staff representatives participating in this proceeding take direction from City Council through senior administration and report back to Council as required to ensure elected officials are informed of any matters that may affect the municipality.

Issues:

The City’s interest is to monitor the proceeding and be served with the records and decisions in order to assess whether there are any potential implications for municipal operations, infrastructure, planning, or impacts on residents within the City. This ensures that City Council remains informed and able to respond if municipal interests are affected.

Policy Interests:

The City’s interest is municipal in nature rather than sector-specific policy advocacy. The City seeks to understand any potential policy, operational, or financial implications arising from the proceeding that could affect municipal responsibilities, community planning, or residents of Welland.

Hearings:

The City does not request a specific form of hearing and defers to the Ontario Energy Board on the appropriate hearing format. The City’s participation is limited to monitoring the proceeding and reviewing filed materials.

Evidence:

The City of Welland does not intend to file evidence in this proceeding at this time. The City’s participation is limited to receiving information and monitoring the proceeding for potential municipal implications.

Coordination with Other Intervenors:

Given the limited, informational nature of its participation, the City does not anticipate overlap with other intervenors. Should coordination be appropriate, the City is willing to communicate with other intervenors to avoid duplication of effort.

Cost Awards:

The City of Welland is not applying for eligibility for an award of costs at this time and reserves its right to do so in the event there are damages or costs that arises. No costs are expected as the City does not intend to file evidence or actively participate beyond receiving proceeding materials.

Language Preference:

The City of Welland intends to participate in the proceeding in English.
