Dear Ritchie Murray:

Re: Ontario Power Generation Inc. (OPG) and DNNP LP
2027-2031 Payment Amounts
Consumers Council of Canada (CCC) – Interim Cost Claim
OEB File No. EB-2025-0297

Please find attached the cost claim for the Consumers Council of Canada (CCC) for the above noted proceeding, which was filed using the Ontario Energy Board's (OEB) cost claim system.

OPG's 2027-2031 Payment Amounts application is complex and involves a large range of issues across both OPG's hydroelectric and nuclear businesses. OPG's payment amounts application is the largest application, in terms of dollars and complexity, that the OEB adjudicates over a 5-year cycle.

CCC organized its work on this matter, between its counsel Michael Buonaguro and its consultant Lawrie Gluck, in an efficient and effective manner to minimize overlap. Each of CCC's representatives are responsible for different issues to avoid duplication of effort. With respect to the technical conference, Mr. Buonaguro and Mr. Gluck sought to mitigate the times that both were present at the technical conference. However, it was not always possible given the broad topics that were covered by some of OPG's witness panels.

CCC holds a very prominent role with respect to the discovery on a number of substantial matters in this case. In particular, CCC is deeply involved in reviewing and analyzing OPG's proposals with respect to hydroelectric and nuclear operation and capital budgets, production forecasts, the quantum and allocation of corporate costs and the rate framework (including deferral and variance accounts).

Throughout the proceeding, we collaborated with many intervenors (through the sharing of questions, draft technical conference questions, etc.) in an effort to reduce the overall regulatory costs.

Overall, CCC submits that its intervention to date in this proceeding is comprehensive and valuable to the OEB. Therefore, CCC respectfully requests reimbursement of its reasonably incurred costs to date.

The Consumers Council of Canada would prefer payment by way of electronic funds transfer. If a company has not already set up EFT payments with the Consumers Council of Canada, please email cori.ferguson@consumerscouncil.com. If paying by cheque, payment should be made directly to the Consumers Council of Canada at the following address:
