EB-2025-0155	Natural Gas – Rates	Granted

Issues:

IGUA's constituents are Enbridge Gas Inc.'s (EGI) largest volume customers, and as such are directly affected by gas delivery rates set by the OEB and other determinations made by the OEB that impact gas delivery rates and services. IGUA was an active intervenor in the proceedings which resulted in the establishment of EGI's 2024 rates and subsequent rate adjustment mechanism, ultimately resulting in EGI's 2025 rates from which the instant proceeding arises. IGUA has an interest in all aspects of the current application, though expects that much of the application will be non-contentious. Following more careful review of EGI's filing, including the G series of exhibits ("Additional Items Not Requiring OEB Approval") and consultation with other interested parties IGUA will be in a better position to determine whether any of EGI's activities or proposals raise concerns.

Hearings:

Subject to further review of the pre-filed materials and discovery thereon, we anticipate that this matter can be effectively addressed through a written hearing process.

Evidence:

IGUA does not anticipate filing evidence in this matter.

Coordination with Other Intervenors:

As a regular intervenor in OEB matters, including in particular natural gas matters, IGUA regularly works in coordination with, and often defers to, other regular intervenors to avoid unnecessary and undue duplication of efforts and activities, and fully intends to continue to do so in this proceeding. EGI's largest industrial customers do have some unique customer and related gas services characteristics, and consequently unique interests in, and perspectives on, regulated gas services. As a matter of practice, IGUA tends to more focussed reviews, discoveries and submissions, engaging on aspects of EGI applications unique to, or which have a particular impact on, large industrial customers. IGUA also has an interest in matters impacting the OEB's ongoing approach to adjudication which have continuing impact on the veracity and conduct of OEB processes in which IGUA engages and on which its members depend.

Cost Awards:

IGUA requests that it be determined eligible to apply for an award of its costs reasonably incurred herein. As representative of the direct interests of EGI's largest volume ratepayers in relation to services regulated by the Board, IGUA has generally been determined eligible to apply for a cost award pursuant to paragraph 3.03(a) of the OEB's Practice Direction on Cost Awards.
