Issues:

SEC is materially impacted by the application as its members are customers of the Applicant. SEC lead counsel, Jay Shepherd, has been a member of the IRP Working Group since its inception, and SEC has been actively involved all in IRP related proceedings, including the development of the current IRP Framework. SEC will participate with respect to all changes to the Framework proposed by the Applicant, and will propose additional changes designed to make the IRP Framework more effective in the future.

Policy Interests:

Hearings:

Until interrogatories have been answered, we believe it is premature to assess whether a written or an oral hearing is more appropriate in this proceeding.

Evidence:

SEC does not intend to file evidence.

Coordination with Other Intervenors:

SEC will coordinate with other intervenors with similar interests, where appropriate, to promote responsible participation in the proceeding.

Cost Awards:

SEC applied for recovery of its cost reasonably incurred in the course of its intervention in this matter. SEC's members are customers of the Applicant and eligible for an award of costs pursuant to section 3.03(a) of the Practice Direction. SEC has participated in many past natural gas and electricity proceedings in Ontario, including consultations, rate cases, and other processes and hearings, and has been found eligible to be paid its reasonably incurred costs in all of those proceedings.
